

Come to Our 2019 Annual Meeting:

“What Book Was That?”

Wednesday, June 5, 7 PM

A conversation with Dana Brigham of the Brookline Booksmith

Brookline Village Library, 7:00 PM

Hunneman Hall

361 Washington Street

You all know Dana Brigham, your favorite book dealer from your favorite book store, offering your favorite books... and games and toys and presents and cards and... all the things you knew you wanted and all those you discovered you had to have! The Brookline Booksmith has been a beloved institution in our community for 58 years, and Dana has led that store into our minds and hearts for 37 of those years, until her retirement last spring.

We've known her as the Booksmith's general manager and co-owner, as a community businesswoman, and as a contributor to the community at large, both literally and figuratively. With Dana retired from her professional book life, we're delighted to have the opportunity now to get to know her on a more personal level...how did her path take her from army brat to her unique role in the Brookline community?

Join us on Wednesday, June 5, in conversation with Lisa Gozashti, her successor at the Booksmith, to hear Dana's story!
