

local history at the Public Library of Brookline

print resources

Directories and Street Lists (1871-Present)

Local Newspapers (1874-Present)

Maps and Atlases depicting Brookline (17th Century-Present)

Histories of the Town

Biographies of Prominent Residents

Brookline Historical Society Proceedings and Publications

Massachusetts Vital Records (-1850)

New England Historical and Genealogical Register

Town Annual Reports and Reports of the Selectmen

Records of Local Organizations

Murivian (Brookline High School Yearbook, 1923-Present, excluding 1998, 2000-2002)

Sagamore (Brookline High School Newspaper 1895-Present)

electronic resources

Murivian (Brookline High School Yearbook, 1923-Present)

Historic Photograph Collection

Town Street Lists (1891-2006)

Digitized Maps

The Public Library of Brookline preserves and provides access to materials that document the history of Brookline. The Brookline Room at the Brookline Village location is our dedicated space for local history materials and is open during regular library hours. Materials in the Brookline Room do not circulate, and some items require an appointment to view.

Schedule an appointment online at bit.ly/brkhistory

The Brookline Room
Brookline Village
361 Washington Street

cover image: U.N. Day at the Public Library of Brookline, 1955

below: Amoskeag Engine, [ca. 1865-1965]

inside left: Coolidge Corner, 1956

inside right: Sargent Estate - Charity Bazaar, 1908

the public library of brookline

